Notes:

- 8:29 Appearances; counsel for the parties appear in person; Court puts background of case on record
- 8:31 Court states trial will not proceed as originally scheduled for Monday, August 22 and notes parties' pretrial submissions have not conformed with the Court's orders
- 8:32 Court rejects contested motions in limine, jury instructions, and verdict form as failing to conform to Court's orders; details issues with parties' filings, discovery practices, and proposed witnesses
- 8:36 Court directs parties to confer as soon as practicable to address shortcomings in their motions in limine, jury instructions, and verdict form; should the parties wish to file an amended final pretrial report and/or motions in limine, they should file a motion seeking leaving to do so, with the relevant submissions attached; on receipt of such motion, the Court will review the content of the attachment(s) before accepting the report or ruling on any motions in limine

- 8:37 Court notes that, if case proceeds to trial, trial will be completed in 2–3 days; Court directs parties to inform their clients that the case will not proceed to trial as scheduled due to counsel's failures to conform their submissions to the Court's orders
- 8:39 Parties have nothing further
- 8:40 Court reminds parties that mediation remains available; notes that trial will be rescheduled upon the Court's consideration of amended pretrial filings
- 8:41 Court stands in recess
